Interpreting for Victims of Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault Cases

Please mark your calendar for day and half training provided by The Asian and Pacific Islander Institute on Gender Based Violence (API-GBV). This training will review issues related to domestic violence, potential legal remedies and resources, guiding principles for interpreters working on domestic and sexual violence settings, strategies for responding to challenging situations, terminology, vicarious trauma, self-care, and safety. The learning objects will be achieved through lecture, mock interviews, and trials.

Be on the lookout for further information and how to RSVP. If you have questions contact Jenny Woodson at Jennifer.L.woodson@ojd.state.or.us
